

against the other men. Ad Brennan is still left to pitch one game for our crew, and we should take that one. If Baltimore gets the odd game of the series Knabe will have his team away in front, and running easily ahead of his nearest contenders, Chicago and St. Louis.

President Gilmore has upheld the protest entered by Tinker of the game won by Buffalo May 14, deciding that the umpire erred on a question of the rules. The battle will have to be played over.

Pittsburgh rapped 15 hits out of Mayer and Alexander and beat the Phils easily. Mike Mitchell got a single, double, triple and walk. Wagner singled three times. Reed of the Phils got four hits. Harmon pitched his first regular game and had an easy time.

St. Louis knocked Fromme and Demaree out of the box, and easily downed the Giants. McGraw's men got but four hits off of Doak and Sallee. Beck smacked a double and homer. Snyder got a double and single. Miller Huggins was canned from the game for kicking.

Ragon let Cincinnati have four walks and four hits in the second inning and seven runs counted. Moran and Niehoff did the heavy hitting for Cincinnati. Dalton of Brooklyn got four hits.

The Mackmen knocked Covalesskie off the rubber in the third inning, but Cavet stopped the rush while the Tigers clouted four Mack heavers. Burns got a homer and single, Kavanaugh two doubles and Crawford three singles. Schang has been moved into the clean-up batting position for the Mackmen, and soaked a double and two singles. Baker was out of the game with a bum hand.

Boehling got back in the game for Washington and downed the Browns. Weillman was batted out of the box. Morgan of Washington got a triple and single.

Collamore was hit hard by the Yanks, Hartzell getting a double and two singles, and Chance's men won easily. Fisher fanned six Naps, and was strong in the dangerous positions.

Stovall's crew rolled 13 hits off of Lafitte and Chappell and let Packard have an easy time. Coles got a homer and single and Kenworthy a pair of triples.

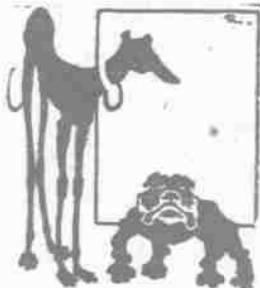

St. Louis and Pittsburgh had a batting rampage, but the Stogies bunched their clouts. Eddie Lennox got two triples and a single. Ward Miller punched two singles.

Buffalo was lucky to win from Indianapolis, Moran and Anderson being batted hard. Bennie Kauff cracked a double and homer. McKechnie and Alger each got a triple and two singles.

MISCELLANEOUS SCORES

Lane, 9; Lake View, 0.
Harrison, 13; Crane, 8.
Englewood, 4; Bowen, 1.
Evanston, 8; Morton, 5.
Oak Park, 22; Proviso, 3.
De LaSalle, 18; St. Phillips, 12.
St. Rita, 20; St. Patrick, 4.
St. Cyril, 6; De Paul, 3.

LIVING UP TO IT

The Greyhound—They value me for my speed. I can overtake anything that runs.

The Bulldog—Yes, I notice that every time another growls at you you're suddenly reminded of something you want to overtake,